

About The Maine Conference UCC

The Maine Conference, UCC is a Christian community within the UCC consisting of seven Associations, 153 congregations, and 16,000 members. The United Church of Christ's mission is "United in Spirit and inspired by God's grace, we welcome all, love all, and seek justice for all". We have three core values central to our ministry: God's continuing testament, extending an extravagant welcome, and changing lives. The Maine Conference, UCC is Open and Affirming, which means that a radical welcome is central to our faith. All people, regardless of racial identity, country of origin, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, housing status, income level, documentation status, ability, employment, theology, or any other identifying labels, are welcome in our programming and integral to our ministry. We live into our UCC identity through supporting people where they are on their own faith journeys and embracing questions and doubts. Our programming reflects our belief that every person is a beloved child of God. Please visit www.ucc.org and www.maineucc.org for more information on the United Church of Christ and the Maine Conference, UCC.
